

Human Rights & Anti-Slavery Policy Statement

Slicker Recycling Limited believes that respect for human rights is fundamental to the sustainability of our business and the communities in which we operate. We are committed to ensuring that people are treated with dignity and respect.

This policy is guided by international human rights principles encompassed in the Human Rights Act, Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the United Nations Global Compact and the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights.

This applies to all Slicker Recycling Limited operations and our use of sub-contractors and contractors.

Our commitment will be demonstrated by achieving the following:

- Identification, prevent and mitigate adverse human rights impacts resulting from or caused by our activities before they occur or if they occur through due diligence and mitigation processes.
- Communication and Engagement play a significant part in ensuring the views of those employed or affected by our activities are heard and their views are considered, and action taken where appropriate. Encouraging open and honest discussion is vital in developing trust, goodwill and delivering improvement by local empowerment where possible.
- Valuing Diversity ensures we recognise the contributions of those we work with, in the greater community. We will not tolerate discrimination and intolerance and have provide an equal opportunity workplace for all.
- Dedication to ensuring our workplaces are free from discrimination, harassment based on; sex, race, colour, national or social origin, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, political opinion. Our recruitment policy is based upon the ability to do the task by demonstrating; educational and vocational achievement, skills and experience.
- Respecting personal beliefs, freedom of religion, fairness and tolerance are requirements of or employees and those with which we trade.
- Freedom to be a union employee without fear of reprisal, intimidation, harassment or blacklisting, where there is union recognition, to hold a constructive dialogue with chosen representatives in good faith.
- Maintenance of a safe and healthy working environment (as defined in our Occupational Health and Safety Policy) ensuring as a minimum compliance with all relevant statute. Dedication to maintaining a productive workplace by minimising the risk of Accidents, Incidents, coupled with ease of reporting near misses, enable hazard identification, evaluation and elimination of potential risks of undesirable events, so making work safer.
- Workplace Security is critical to ensuring the wellbeing of our staff, we operate access systems to our sites and encourage the reporting of issues, supplemented by the use of electronic or other means of contacting our support network in the event of a security emergency arising.
- Prohibition of the use of forced labour, slave labour, child labour and any form of human trafficking. We operate with contracted employees aged over 18 years at all of our facilities and workplaces.
- of high risk employees to aid the identification and prevention of Ill Health;
- Ensuring that the Company compensates employees competitively relative to the industry and local labour market. We operate in full compliance with applicable wage, hours of work, overtime and employment benefit laws.
- Provision of Guidance for employees relating to potential breaches of this policy and secure reporting lines to senior employees independent of existing organisational structures, where confidential discussions can be offered. Key contacts;
- Alex Lyall alex.lyall@slickerrecycling.com HR Manager or Adrian Saunders adrian.saunders@slickerrecycling.com Health, Safety, Environment and Quality Manager
- Review the policy annually during Management Review to ensure it remains relevant, appropriate and effective for the organisation's needs.

Slicker Recycling Limited encourages all employees to become actively involved and to co-operate in the effective implementation of this policy to ensure success in achieving our targets.

Mark Olpin
Managing Director
Slicker Recycling Limited
Date 9th May 2018

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be the name "Mark Olpin".